1932 (May) YMCA Letter and News Clipping Cover
This cover (together with YMCA letter, news clippings, and a sample emergency stamp coupon) helps us to explore a remarkable piece of postal history. This is a very unique cover sent from Shanghai to the USA via Vancouver in May 1932, during the impactful Shanghai Post Office strike. This exceptional item features:

- YMCA Navy Letter: Dated May 24, 1932, this insightful letter from the Navy Y.M.C.A. in Shanghai to a recipient in San Diego discusses the establishment of a temporary post office for foreign mail due to the strike. It includes emergency “stamps” or coupons used during these improvised postal operations, highlighting innovative solutions to mail service disruptions.
- News Clipping: Provides detailed reporting on the Shanghai P.O. strike, outlining its causes and the swift emergency measures implemented to restore international mail services. Key excerpts describe the initiatives led by consulates and the Shanghai Municipal Council to maintain communication lines amidst complete postal paralysis.

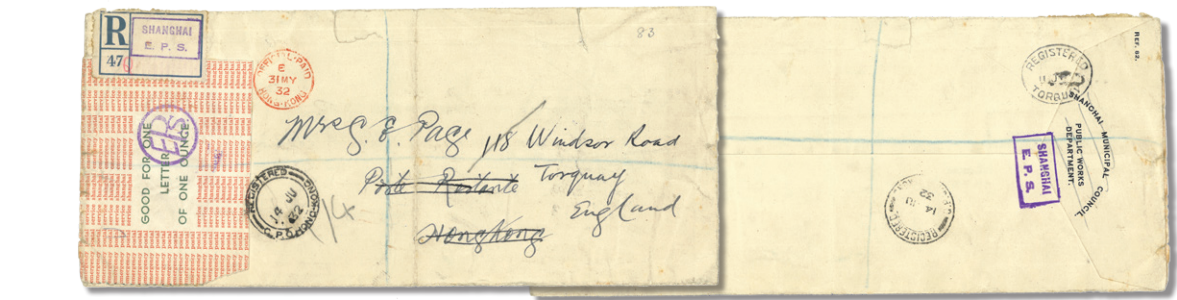

This cover is not only an intriguing collectible for philatelists but also a valuable historical document, capturing a pivotal moment in Shanghai’s postal and international relations history. It is a must-have for collectors interested in the intersection of history and mail service adaptation in challenging circumstances. The combination of personal correspondence and contemporaneous reporting makes it highly desirable for those dedicated to preserving historical narratives.

1901 Registered Cover from Yang-tsun to England.
1898 10pf Carmine (Scott 3; Michel 3II), vertical strip of three and vertical pair, used in combination with 1901 50pf Purple & Black on Salmon (Scott 31; Michel 22), horizontal pair with bottom selvage and a single, all tied by clear strikes of “TIENTSIN / DEUTSCHE POST / 7/10 01” circular date stamps on registered bright buff cover to Horton, England.
Reverse with sender’s return address: “von Warnsdorff, Oberleutnant im 3. Ostasiatischen Infanterie-Regiment, Yang-tsun,” showing military origin. The Feldpost No. 3 registry label was crossed out and replaced with a manuscript “Yang-tsun.” London transit (20 Nov) and Bradford arrival backstamps. Some minor edge wear and a slightly reduced bottom edge.
Yang-tsun (楊村) located in Wuqing District (武清區), Tianjin Municipality, China. It lies northeast of central Tianjin and was a notable location during the Boxer Rebellion. The Battle of Yangtsun on August 6, 1900, was one of the key engagements involving the Eight-Nation Alliance, including German troops. The name “Yang-tsun” in the military return address corresponds to this strategic site. A scarce and attractive registered cover from the German military post in Yangtsun during the Boxer Rebellion period, combining multiple high-value German Offices in China issues.

楊村位於中國天津市武清區，地處天津市區以東北方向。此地義和團事變期間具有重要軍事戰略地位。1900年8月6日，「楊村之戰」是八國聯軍與清軍及義和團發生激烈戰鬥的重要一役，其中德國部隊亦有參與。信封背面所載之寄件人地址「Yang-tsun」，即指此地，顯示本件郵品具有濃厚的軍事郵政與歷史背景價值。
一件珍罕且具吸引力的掛號郵件，寄自義和團戰亂期間駐紮楊村的德軍部隊，混貼多枚駐華德國郵票，極具郵政與軍事歷史意義。
